*Nearly a century after his death, the image of Sai Baba, the serene old man with the white beard from Shirdi village in Maharashtra, India, is instantly recognizable to most South Asians (and many Westerners) as a guru for all faiths—Hindus, Muslims, and others. During his lifetime Sai Baba accepted all followers who came to him, regardless of religious or caste background, and preached a path of spiritual enlightenment and mutual tolerance. These days, tens of thousands of Indians and foreigners make the pilgrimage to Shirdi each year, and Sai Baba temples have sprung up in unlikely places around the world, such as Munich, Seattle, and Austin. Tracing his rise from small village guru to global phenomenon, religious studies scholar Karlene McLain uses a wide range of sources to investigate the different ways that Sai Baba has been understood in South Asia and beyond and the reasons behind his skyrocketing popularity among Hindus in particular. Shining a spotlight on an incredibly forceful devotional movement that avoids fundamental politics and emphasizes unity, service, and peace, The Afterlife of Sai Baba is an entertaining—and enlightening—look at one of South Asia's most popular spiritual gurus.*

The present work is the english rendering of La formation de la Langue Marathe - a well-known work by Jules Bloch. The original French version was the first systematic undertaking to coordinate data on Marathi languages,- tracing its evolution and development through various stages - from sanskrit Prakrit and Apabhramsa. Jules Bloch was expert in Dravidian languages, specially Tamil and had studied Indo-Aryan languages. He was therefore competent to undertake the study of Marathi language and place it in its whole environment. It is not surprising that the results of his studies stand unchallenged even half a century after the publication of his work.

The "Maratha period" of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, when an independent Maratha state successfully resisted the Mughals, is a defining era in the history of the region of Maharashtra in western India. In this book, Prachi Deshpande considers the importance of this period for a variety of political projects including anticolonial/Hindu nationalism and the non-Brahman movement, as well as popular debates throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries concerning the meaning of tradition, culture, and the experience of colonialism and modernity. Sampling from a rich body of literary and cultural sources, Deshpande highlights shifts in history writing in early modern and modern India and the deep connections between historical and literary narratives. She traces the reproduction of the Maratha period in various genres and public arenas, its incorporation into regional political symbolism, and its centrality to the making of a modern Marathi regional consciousness. She also shows how historical memory provided a space for Indians to negotiate among their national, religious, and regional identities, pointing to history's deeper potential in shaping politics within thoroughly diverse societies. A truly unique study, Creative Pasts examines the practices of historiography and popular memory within a particular colonial context, and illuminates the impact of colonialism on colonized societies and cultures. Furthermore, it shows how modern history and historical memory are jointly created through the interplay of cultural activities, power structures, and political rhetoric.

This Book, Co-Published With Cambridge University Press, Breaks New Ground In The Field Of Industrial Anthropolgy. The Focus Of The Book Is On The Uneasy Relationship Between The Permanent (Organised Sector) Industrial Workers, Who Have The Protection Of The Factory Act And The Trade Unions, And The Temporary (Unorganised) Workers. The Author Questions Whether India Has A Dual Economy And Society In Which These Two Groups Of Workers Act As Distinct Classes With Opposed Interests. Dr Holmstrom Uses A Wide Range Of Material, From The Opinions And Life Stories Of Workers To Accounts Of Recent Union Movements In The `Unorganised Sector`, And Contributes Critically To The Debate On `Dualism` And Its Underlying Assumptions.

Welder Marathi MCQ / ??????? ?????? MCQ

Joining of Materials and Structures is the first and only complete and highly readable treatment of the options for joining conventional materials and the structures they comprise in conventional and unconventional ways, and for joining emerging materials and structures in novel ways. Joining by mechanical fasteners, integral designed-or formed-in features, adhesives, welding, brazing, soldering, thermal spraying, and hybrid processes are addressed as processes and technologies, as are issues associated with the joining of metals, ceramics (including cement and concrete) glass, plastics, and composites (including wood), as well as, for the first time anywhere, living tissue. While focused on materials issues, issues related to joint design, production processing, quality assurance, process economics, and joint performance in service are not ignored. The book is written for engineers, from an in-training student to a seasoned practitioner by an engineer who chose to teach after years of practice. By reading and referring to this book, the solutions to joining problems will be within one's grasp. Key Features: Unprecedented coverage of all joining options (from lashings to lasers) in 10 chapters Uniquely complete coverage of all materials, including living tissues, in 6 chapters Richly illustrated with 76 photographs and 233 illustrations or plots Practice Questions and Problems for use as a text of for reviewing to aid for comprehension * Coverage all of major joining technologies, including welding, soldering, brazing, adhesive and cement bonding, pressure fusion, riveting, bolting, snap-fits, and more * Organized by both joining techniques and materials types, including metals, non-metals, ceramics and glasses, composites, biomaterials, and living tissue * An ideal reference for design engineers, students, package and product designers, manufacturers, machinists, materials scientists Publishes in-depth articles on labor subjects, current labor statistics, information about current labor contracts, and book reviews. 1956, there was an opportunity to choose a new way of life by joining the Religion Conversion Revolution. But their fraternity refused to change. In the dark night Leela used to wash her clothes in a canal flowing nearby. Then she has to wait silently with the naked body; helplessly till clothes gets dried up. At that cold night, it could not even burn some dry wood to keep her body warm. The fear was rape from lusty men than cold. In the moonlight she could not wash clothes. . If there was a marriage in someone's house then Patharu used to steal four to five rotis. . With half open eyes he was able to see a stray dog was licking his wounds. . Old woman got up and shouted at Patharu, "you idiot, She is expecting and you are going to be a father." . Patharu was worried. It's very difficult to manage both ends meet with three members, what will happen if one more member takes birth. It's going to be the tough one. . This was not the only family under destitute poverty of independent India. There were many families below poverty line. India at that time was cleave in two parts, rural India and urban India. . Once, his mother has stolen water from upper part of the canal. . They all caught her and pour hot garlic oil in her eyes. His father and grandfather construe that this is because of their own sin in past life. This made very bad impact on Patharu's mind. . . Then his wife used to visit Darabhanga police. The officer used get all domestic work from her and at night used to sleep with her.. . Leela was breathless by remembering her brother. Patharu was not sad about his father's death, but the Brass pot his father was carrying was also missing . . It was very shiny afternoon. The sun was pouring heat on the earth. It was total silence in the area. At that time Leela saw the drunkards having party with same pot. She started to quarrel with them. And suddenly something happen. When she got into her senses it was late in the evening. The Brass pot was there but she has lost everything to them. She was brutally raped. . If she raise voice against the rape, there were chances to get nothing but more insult. Another thing was that, this was the secret, no one knew about it. So she decided to keep mum. She flipped the pot and apart from liquor she found some coins in it . That might be because drunkards have forgotten.. . Cabinet minister's son in law Mr. Dinesh arrived from London last week. He was on special mission. He was in search of a subject, "progress of India after Independence." And he got perfect subject, a woman pulling plough with a bull and a child holding a plough. . The woman was young enough so Dinesh adjusted camera angle to show counters of her chest. In addition the girl child was almost nude with one cloth near waist. Wow, great picture. He waits till the woman breath so that perfect light on her body. . Dinesh was dam sure that he will get the first prize of one million pounds. Then he could purchase another bungalow and present it to his wife. He hate India and poor Indians. . There were only two members in the ambulance, Patharu and the driver. For last thiry hours ambulace was running towards village Katihar. . The driver asked Patharu where he wants to get down. Patharu answered the Mochi's. Driver looked at him contemptible. And literally throw him out near canal. The brutality with animal called Patharu was at its peak. He was fluttering in pain. Patharu was shouting Leela Leela... Leela listened his voice and ran towards him. She saw Patharu flounder with his half cut body. Her head was eddy giddy. Patharu was trying to show her something. She was unable to understand it. . What happened next? ... Grab the story now .
